

Culum Tighe Walsh

WORK EXPERIENCE:

-Professional Certified Coach (PCC): January, 2018 - present: Founder, Human By Human, Coaching for Life, Thornton, Colorado; coach 6th, 7th, and 8th graders; coach parents one-on-one; lead summer life skills workshop for teenagers and their parents; created life coaching skills workshops for parents; lead small group academic life-coaching for middle school and college students; present to PTO's and Parent-Groups on Executive Function, the Teenaged Brain, and Academic Life Coaching.

-Coach Trainer, November, 2017 - April, 2019: Coach Training EDU, Portland, Oregon; teach virtual Academic Life Coach-Training courses; create lesson plans; evaluate life-coaching skills; collaborate with other coach-trainers.

-Marketing and PR Manager: Pinnacle Foot and Ankle Clinic, Westminster, Colorado, June, 2016 - August, 2017: enhanced online presence; executed marketing and PR initiatives.

-Hotel Administrator: Hotel Playa Carmen, Santa Teresa, Costa Rica, Dec., 2015 - Dec., 2016: managed bilingual communications; collaborated on marketing and sales; transformed website and online presence.

-English Teacher, Denver Center for International Studies, 2006-2014: taught 7th Grade Language Arts and College Preparatory Literature and Composition.

-Service Trip Organizer, Dominican Republic Service Learning, 1999-2011. Created a sustainable development and leadership program for high school students - homestays, service projects, etc., in the Dominican Republic and México. Organized and led thirteen trips.

-ESL, English, and Spanish Teacher, Manual High School, Denver, Colorado: 2000-2006: taught English Language Acquisition to Spanish-speakers, Spanish for Spanish-Speakers, Spanish for English-Speakers, and English for English-Speakers.

-Spanish Teacher, Kent Denver School, 1993-2000: taught 6th Grade Spanish; and high school Spanish I, II, III, and AP Spanish Literature.

-Agriculture Volunteer, United States Peace Corps, Dominican Republic, 1991-1993. Partnered with a non-government organization on a reforestation project, raising and planting Nim trees.

EDUCATION:

-M.A., Teaching Foreign Languages, University of Northern Colorado, 1997; summer Abroad, Fundación Ortega y Gasset, Madrid, Spain, 1996

-B.A., Spanish Language and Literature, University of Colorado, Boulder, 1990; Junior Year Abroad, Instituto Español-Americano, Seville, Spain, 1988-89

SERVICE WORK

Introduction Leader and Seminar Leader, Landmark Worldwide, 2010-2013. Led introductions to the Landmark Forum; coached hundreds of adults individually and in large group seminars.

Leadership Trainer and Fundraiser: Provided resources and leadership training for Club de Líderes Comunitarios de Los Conucos, Dominican Republic, 2011-2014

RELEVANT SKILLS: fully bi-literate in English and Spanish; curriculum development for first and second languages; English Language Acquisition (ELA) certified - 150 hours completed, Denver Public Schools.

HOBBIES: telemark and backcountry skiing, mountain and road biking, surfing, long-distance swimming, triathlons, yoga, meditation, travel, gardening, and reading

LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS:

Professional Certified Coach (PCC)

Secondary Teacher License, State of Colorado.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

International Coach Federation (ICF) Global

ICF Colorado

Families in Global Transition (GIFT)